IMPORTANT DIRECTIONS FOR CANDIDATES

- Candidates must follow the instructions mentioned in this admit card.
- Candidates should report to the exam centre at least 120 minutes before the exam begins. No candidates will be allowed to enter the examination center after 9:00 am in Morning Shift and 2:30 pm in afternoon shift.
- Bring your own blue/black ballpoint pen to write particulars if needed.
- Without a valid admit card and original photo ID, entry is prohibited.
- No candidate shall leave the exam hall before conclusion and signing the attendance sheet.
- Follow the instructions mentioned in Notification strictly.
- You will be given an MCQ test booklet with OMR sheet in it and one descriptive type question-cum-answer booklet (with detachable question paper). The combined duration to answer MCQ and descriptive type questions is 3 hours.
- The corresponding circle is to be marked on OMR sheet against the answers of MCQ.
- In case of MCQ, one mark (1) shall be awarded to every correct answer and 1/3 marks shall be deducted for every incorrect answer. Filling up or darkening more than one response in any question will be treated as wrong response and 1/3 marks shall be deducted as in the case of incorrect answer. Unanswered questions will not be given any marks.
- The question-cum-answer booklet will have space below each question to write its answer. The answer of concerned question should be written only in the specified space. The answers written anywhere else will not be evaluated. There is no negative marking in case of descriptive type questions.
- Except in case of TGT/PGT (Language subjects), the candidates have to tick on cover page, the medium Hindi or English in which they want to write answers. Accordingly, the answers in question-cum-answer booklets should be written only in Hindi or English medium as selected on cover page. The answers written in different medium/language will not be evaluated.
- In case of TGT/PGT (Language subjects), the answers in question-cum-answer booklets should be written only in concerned language. The answers written in different medium/language will not be evaluated.
- After completion of examination, you should handover the OMR sheet and question-cum-answer booklet to the invigilator in the examination room/hall. You are allowed to carry with you MCQ Test Booklet and detachable question paper (which is at the last of question-cum-answer booklet).
- This admit card is provisional. Qualifying the examination does not guarantee a job. Your eligibility will be verified by the recruiting agency.
- Visit the exam centre a day before to confirm the location and transport.
- Diabetic candidates may bring sugar tablets, candy, fruits, or sandwich in a transparent bag. These will be kept with the invigilator and handed over on request.
